TMHA CODE OF ETHICS AND MEMBERSHIP POLICIES

As members of Texas Manufactured Housing Association, we subscribe to the principles set forth in the TMHA Code of Ethics and Membership Policies and pledge to comply with the specific standards of conduct established by the Code. We pledge to be ever mindful of our moral responsibility to provide our customers with a product that represents value equal to payment received. We further pledge that all obligations to our customers contained in guaranties or warranties ordered in connection with the manufacture, sale and installation of our homes will be properly fulfilled within a reasonable period of time. In the conduct of our individual businesses, we pledge to refrain from any act that would bring discredit to our industry or association, or any individual member thereof. In our advertising and promotion endeavors we pledge to emphasize the positive aspects and actual benefits of manufactured housing and to refrain from any such endeavors that might deceive or mislead the public or include false claims. We assume these responsibilities with the understanding that to do so is part of our obligation as TMHA members.

Applicant certifies that the information submitted on this membership application form is accurate and complete. Applicant also certifies that business conduct will be in accordance with the TMHA Code of Ethics and in accordance with all applicable laws, rules and regulations as promulgated by state and federal agencies. Applicant agrees to abide by the by-laws of the association, to attend meetings whenever possible, and to cooperate with other members in helping to improve the image of the manufactured housing industry and to minimize and resolve consumer complaints.

Applicant certifies this payment authorization is valid and to remain in effect unless I notify TMHA of its cancellation by sending written notice to 4520 Spicewood Springs Rd. Ste. 200 Austin, Texas 78759.
